ARMENIA

4 Nights / 5 Days

About the Place

Armenia, a nation nestled in the South Caucasus region, offers a rich tapestry of history, culture, and natural beauty, making it a compelling destination for travelers. The vibrant capital city, known as one of the world's oldest continuously inhabited cities, offers a blend of modernity and ancient history. The Pink City (so called due to the color of local stone) boasts sights like the Republic Square, Cascade Complex, and the Matenadaran—an ancient manuscript repository. Armenia is one of the world's oldest Christian nations, home to various monasteries and churches. Notable spots include Geghard Monastery, Tatev Monastery, and the iconic Khor Virap, offering stunning views of Mount Ararat. The country is adorned with stunning landscapes. The Armenian Highlands offer picturesque scenes, especially in places like Dilijan National Park, Lake Sevan (one of the largest high-altitude lakes in the world), and the gorgeous Lori region. Adventure seekers can enjoy hiking trails in areas like the Geghama Mountains or partake in activities like paragliding and skiing in Tsaghkadzor. Rich and diverse, with influences from both Eastern and Western cultures. Indulge in dishes like khorovats (barbecue), dolma, and lavash (unleavened flatbread) paired with local wines or brandies.
