About the Place

Welcome to Azerbaijan, a country of breathtaking landscapes, rich culture, and warm hospitality. Discover the wonders of this hidden gem in the South Caucasus with our guide to Azerbaijan. Azerbaijan is situated at the crossroads of Eastern Europe and Western Asia, offering a diverse landscape that includes the Caspian Sea coast, lush valleys, towering mountains, and the unique Gobustan Desert. Its strategic location has made it a melting pot of cultures and traditions. The capital city of Azerbaijan, Baku, is a vibrant, dynamic metropolis that combines historic architecture with cutting-edge modernity. The city is famous for its iconic Flame Towers, stunning seafront promenade, and the UNESCO-listed Old City, a maze of narrow streets, historic buildings, and charming cafés. Azerbaijan's culture is a rich tapestry of influences from the East and West. The Azerbaijani people take pride in their traditional music, dance, and art. The country is renowned for mugham, a distinctive genre of music, as well as intricate carpet weaving, which is recognized as a UNESCO Intangible Cultural Heritage.

Upon arrival at the Baku International Airport our local representative will meet and greet the guests and they will be transferred to the hotel for check-in in Baku.

Baku Panoramic Tour The tour starts from Highland Park by viewing the beautiful panorama of Caspian Bay. Observe the Flame Towers, Funicular and the national council. Visit Highland Park, Upland Park Free time for individual activity Back to hotel

Highland Park, Alley of Martyrs

The Highland Park Baku is the highest point of the capital of Azerbaijan, from where a beautiful panorama of the city and the bay opens. People from Baku and tourists often come here to see Baku from a bird's eye view, as well as just take a walk.

Name Highland Park received due to its location. The territory of the park zone is located on a hill, so from the observation platforms, a magnificent view of the nearby attractions opens Baku Boulevard Baku Bay, the Shirvanshahs Palace, Old City of Baku and the Maiden's Tower. The place called by local people as "Dagustu park" which means Upland Park

Martyrs' Lane or Alley of Martyrs (Azerbaijani: Şəhidlər Xiyabanı), formerly known as the Kirov Park, is a cemetery and memorial in Baku, Azerbaijan dedicated to those killed by the Soviet Army during Black January 1990 and in the First Nagorno-Karabakh War of 1988–1994.

DAY 02. BAKU CITY TOUR & ABSHERON TOUR

Baku City Tour

Pickup from hotel

The tour starts in the morning (at agreed time). First, a driver meets the guests in the lobby of the hotel. Driver accompany tourists to the memorial places in Baku City.

Tour in Old City Baku (Icherisheher)

The guests will be taken to the Old City – Historical monument of Baku. The Old City of Baku is protected with the Preservation walls that have remained since the 6th century. The guide (if guest booked guide) introduces the Old City's history to the guests while they are travelling. The historical places, such as Karvansaray, Maiden Tower, old labyrinth streets, mosques, and small souvenir shops are shown by the guide during the Old city tour.

Shirvanshah Palace

Here the guests visit Azerbaijani historical museum Shirvanshah Palace which is among the monuments within the Old City. In the mentioned museum tourists will enter the throne room, shah's burial place, mosque, tomb, and shah's bathroom.

Miniature Book Museum

The Baku Museum of Miniature Books is the only museum of miniature books in the world, settled in the old part of Baku, called Inner City. The museum started its operation on April 2, 2002. In 2015 the Museum of Miniature Books was presented the Certificate of the Guinness Book of Records as the largest private museum of miniature books.

Maiden Tower

The Maiden Tower (Azerbaijani: Qız qalası) is a 12th-century monument in the Old City, Baku, Azerbaijan. Along with the Shirvanshahs' Palace, dated to the 15th century, it forms a group of historic monuments listed in 2001 under the UNESCO World Heritage List of Historical Monuments as cultural property, Category III. It is one of Azerbaijan's most distinctive national emblems, and is thus featured on Azerbaijani currency notes and official letterheads.

The Maiden Tower houses a museum, which presents the story of the historic evolution of Baku city. It also has a gift shop. The view from the roof takes in the alleys and minarets of the Old City, the Baku Boulevard, the house of Isakbek Hajinski and a wide vista of the Baku Bay.

The Tower is covered by cloud of mysteries and legends which are rooted to the history and culture of Azerbaijan. Indeed, some epics became a subject for scenario for ballets and theatre's plays. The Maiden Tower (ballet) is a world-class Azerbaijani ballet created by Afrasiyab Badalbeyli in 1940 and ballet's remake was performed in 1999.

Consequent to the receding of the sea shoreline of the Caspian Sea, a strip of land emerged. This land was developed between the 9th and 15th centuries, when the walls of the old city, the palace including the huge bastion of the Maiden Tower were built.

"Little Venice" in Baku Boulevard is a small town built in 1960. It was expanded up to 10,000 sq.m. in 2012. The town has two large and several small islands, which are connected by decorative stone bridges, and gondolas can be seen travelling in the channels full of still and clean water. In the 1950s and 1960s the Mirvari (Pearl) cafe, the Little Venice water park, the Bahar (Spring) cinema and other entertainments were built in Baku Boulevard. "Little Venice" in Baku Boulevard is a small town built in 1960. It was expanded up to 10,000 sq.m. now. The town has two large and several small islands.

Absheron Tour

Pickup from hotel

The tour starts in the morning (at agreed time). First, a driver meets the guests in the lobby of the hotel. Driver accompany tourists to the memorial places in Absheron Peninsula.

Fire temple - Ateshgah

Ateshgah (Azerbaijani: Atəşgah), often called the "Fire Temple of Baku" is a castle-like religious temple in Surakhani town (in Suraxanı raion) a suburb in Baku, Azerbaijan. Based on Persian and Indian inscriptions, the temple was used as a Hindu, Sikh, and Zoroastrian place of worship. "Atash" (آت) is the Persian word for fire the pentagonal complex, which has a courtyard surrounded by cells for monks and a tetra pillar-altar in the middle, was built during the 17th and 18th centuries. It was abandoned in the late 19th century, probably due to the dwindling of the Indian population in the area.

Burning mountain - Yanar Dag

Yanar Dag (Azerbaijani: Yanar Dağ, meaning "burning mountain") is a natural gas fire which blazes continuously on a hillside on the Absheron Peninsula on the Caspian Sea near Baku, the capital of Azerbaijan (a country which itself is known as "the Land of Fire"). Flames jet into the air 3 meters (9.8 ft) from a thin, porous sandstone layer.

Drop - off to the hotel

After sightseeing all above the driver will drop them off to the hotel if wanted.

DAY 3.

GABALA DAY TOUR

Pickup from hotel

The tour starts in the morning (at agreed time). First, a driver meets the guests in the lobby of the hotel. Driver accompany tourists to the memorial places in Gabala City.

Reaching Gabala. Tufandag: one of the longest teleferic of the world. Whether for skiing or just for memorable summer views of the Alpine scenery behind Gabala, jump aboard the Tufandag network of four cable cars.

Tufandag Winter-Summer Tourist Complex is located 4 kilometers far from Gabala city. The resort allows visitors to enjoy different extreme sports and tourism activities in the harmony with nature. Tufandag complex provides skiing in winter, going up to the mountains by cable cars in summer, mountain climbing by ATV quad bikes and other types of entertainment. The ski season starting on December 15 continues till March 31 in Tufandag. During the 100-day winter season visitors can enjoy recreational activities such as skiing, hiking, snowmobiling, and snowboarding. The ski slopes of the Tufandag complex provide visitors with unforgettable moments with its a 1000-meter vertical downhill, 15-kilometer ski slopes and 4 rope lines. Here are green and blue ski slopes for beginners and moderate skiers, and red and black ski slopes for professional skiers. Along with the natural snow, there are snowmobiles that provide unforgettable skiing experience in snow-covered slopes throughout the season. It is possible to rent the skiing equipment of the skiing center inside the resort. It is also possible to take ski lessons from professional instructors.

Nohurgol Lake: The lake is surrounded by a forest. You can walk around or sail on a boat. Nohur Lake is one of the most popular and visited natural attractions of Gabala, Azerbaijan. Located about 5 km east of the Gabala City, the lake is surrounded by the forest and high mountains called Yumru, Goydag and Gulluburun. The lake covers 240 ha in total and has the maximum depth 24 meters.

Yeddi Gozel Waterfall.

Other major attractions are the exotic Yeddi Gozel (Seven beauties) waterfalls. This waterfall is near Ruskan village. The highest waterfall in the country – Michekhchadaur (53 meters in height) at the Demiraparanchay river gorge. Yeddi-Gozel waterfalls in Gabala, one of the most popular tourist destinations in Gabala, are 6 kilometers from Vandam village and 3 km from the main track over Puskan.

seven-step waterfall. Only two small waterfalls are visible below. To look at the other five waterfalls, you have to climb up the stairs, requires some physical strength. However, those who are going through this difficult path await a mysterious panorama. There is also a restaurant and a tea house. The waterfall is always dark and cool because it is located in a dense forest that is not affected by the sun's rays.

The shooting centre in the village of Bum offers world-class facilities – it hosted stages of the Shooting World Cup between 2014 and 2016 – and unparalleled target shooting experiences to the backdrop of the Caucasus Mountains. With cottages and an excellent onsite restaurant, the centre is also well placed to cater to tourists wishing to simply relax in fabulous natural surroundings.
